Compliance Woes? JST Can Help.

Worried about Compliance? Are you confident your staff is up to speed on FDCPA rules and regulations? Are you looking for a certification or testing program for your employees to meet client audit requirements?

We can help! JST has partnered with FDCPA Certifications, LLC to offer compliance solutions to our customers. FDCPA Certifications offers online, self paced, video-based FDCPA training and certification. FDCPA Certifications has been utilized by hundreds of collection professionals.

Their services also include a Daily Question program where collectors will be tested everyday with a question on FDCPA that is pushed out via email, SMS text, or software integration. Answers are tracked and comprehensive reports are available to help compliance officers identify strengths and weaknesses of each collector, and the team as a whole.

Integration with FDCPA Certifications' Daily Question program is available to CollectMax™ version 6 or higher users who enlist in the program. Via the Daily Question program, CollectMax users can receive a test question at the start of each day when they log into CollectMax.

FDCPA Certifications offers this tracked daily question push for only $9.97 per employee, per month. For a limited time, they are offering a No Obligation 30 Day Free Trial to JST customers.

If you are interested in learning more about the Daily Question program (or their flagship online FDCPA Training Course), please call FDCPA Certifications directly at 855.239.4555. Once you are set up with the Daily Question program, contact our Support team and they will get you going with the integration.

CollectMax™ version 7 or higher is required for the FDCPA Certification integration.
